"After playing Gods' Brethren in Greece, and Final Fantasy XI's skills in a clan battle, I was thoroughly impressed by the game. As I was looking forward to the game, I have been playing it since the day of release." "The fact that the console lacks an online play mode is a little disappointing, and the 'variation' in its graphics is also a little disappointing." "The fact that the graphics can be changed in the camera angle is also a little disappointing, but it's a very important feature to make the game unique." "The game has a lot of faults, but compared to the number of faults, the game is very interesting." "The fact that the game has a lot of free upgrades is also a little disappointing. After all, it's fun to spend money on a game and get extra features." "It's not really that disappointing, but I feel like this game should have been a little shorter." "It would have been nice if the graphics could have been made better. However, compared to the free content updates, it's pretty good." "It is definitely a game that will not make it on this generation, but even for the future, I think it will be a very interesting game that looks good even in the future." Hi guys, in this video I show you a new wave for the Legion Gold and Aurene addon. The Legend gold is a pretty good addon in itself and was released right before I started vsing videos, but it does lack some features out of the box. In this wave I have added a new feature which is the Animated Arondight quest. I hope you enjoy this wave for the Legion Gold addition.

Greetings fellas, I bring you my last installment before the hiatus... that is until January 26 with the next addition to the Imgurite Horror series. This one's quite good and very playable. I've enjoyed working on this piece so far, it actually reminds me somewhat of the wiki page for DCC RPG. Admittedly, it's a bit bulkier, but it got me thinking about much of the mod, so this really paid off for me.
