Sec. 2383 (repealed). The Act of State Doctrine therefore applies here to permit adjudication of the merits of the questions raised by the defendants. As Chief Justice Burger stated in Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, 423, 84 S.Ct. 923, 937, 11 L.Ed.2d 804 (1964): [T]here is a strong presumption that states parties are bound by their international agreements in circumstances where the agreements are consistent with international law and do not contravene public policy. In such circumstances it is the role of the United States and international tribunals... to ensure that the parties to the agreements are observing their terms in good faith.

Thus, where a state has entered into a treaty with the United States, and where the courts of that state have power
